The relationship between the Bank and the Customer shall be governed by the following terms and conditions including any amendments made from time to time thereto and notified to the Customer (the "General Terms and Conditions"), subject to any further agreement in writing:

1. Definitions and Interpretation

In these General Terms and Conditions:

- a. "Customer" means a person who holds and maintains an account with the Bank and shall include any person or persons, firm or corporate body;
- b. "Bank" means BANK OF AFRICA KENYA LIMITED and includes its successors in title and assigns;
- c. "Account" means a bank account of any type opened and maintained by a Customer with the Bank in accordance with these terms and conditions and banking practice and procedure;
- d. Words importing the singular meaning where the context so admits include the plural meaning and vice versa;
- e. Words importing the masculine gender only include the feminine and neuter genders and words denoting natural persons include corporations and firms and all such words shall be constructed interchangeably in that manner;
- f. The clause and paragraph headings are for reference purposes only and shall not affect the construction of this Agreement;
- g. If the Customer comprises more than one person the obligations and liabilities of such persons hereunder are joint and several;
- h. If any of the provisions hereof is found by any court or other competent authority to be void or unenforceable, it shall be deemed to have been deleted from these General Terms and Conditions and the remaining provisions shall continue to apply and be binding on the parties.

2. Customers Instructions

- a. The Customer requests the Bank to honour and to debit to his account all cheques, drafts, bills, promissory notes, acceptances, negotiable instruments and orders drawn accepted or made out by him or on his behalf, and to carry out any instructions he may give in connection with his account notwithstanding that any such debiting or carrying out of instructions may cause his account to be overdrawn or the limit of any overdraft enjoyed by him to be increased.
- b. Where no overdraft has been agreed or the limit of any overdraft agreed has been fully utilised, the Bank may refuse to carry out any instructions which would result in there being an overdraft or any overdraft limit greater than that agreed or sanctioned by the Bank as the case may be.
- c. All instructions given to the Bank by the Customer shall be in writing unless the Bank advises the Customer that instructions pertaining to a particular account or service may be given in a different manner.
- d. The Bank may in its sole discretion permit telephonic, telegraphic, facsimile or electronic mail instructions but reserves the right not to honour such instructions or to suspend the carrying out of such instructions until it has received a suitable indemnity from the Customer against all liability which may result from carrying out such instructions and/or it has received written confirmation of such instructions from the Customer. Should the Bank act upon any telephonic, telegraphic, facsimile or electronic mail instructions, the Customer hereby irrevocably undertakes to indemnify and hold the Bank harmless against all costs, damages and liability howsoever arising as a result.
- e. Unless the Bank is irrevocably bound to act or process the transaction in question, the Customer may cancel instructions issued by him before the Bank acts upon them.

The Bank shall be entitled to levy a charge for the cancellation of any instructions in line with the Bank's tariff guide, acceptance of which the Customer hereby confirms and undertakes to pay.

- f. The Bank reserves the right to close or suspend any account which it suspects to have been opened fraudulently or which upon investigation is found to have been opened fraudulently.

3. Authorised Signatories

- a. The Customer shall, at the time of opening the account and at all times thereafter, give to the Bank, in an acceptable form, the specimen signatures of all persons authorised to operate the Customer's account (the "Authorised Signatory" or "Authorised Signatories") together with the names, addresses and such other information as the Bank may require pertaining to the Authorised Signatories.
- b. All such Authorised Signatories, unless otherwise agreed, are entitled to withdraw all or any of the Customer's money, securities, deeds, documents or other property held by the Bank from time to time (provided that they do not form part of any security held by the Bank), to open any further account in the name of the Customer and/or to overdraw any of the Customer's accounts.

4. Legal Capacity and Enquiry

- a. The Bank shall be entitled to make any enquiries it deems necessary in relation to the opening of an account and the Customer hereby authorises the Bank to make any such enquiries.
- b. The Customer shall provide the Bank with all such information and documents as the Bank may require in terms of establishing the identity of the Customer or the Authorised Signatories and their legal capacity to open and operate the account or as may be required pursuant to any anti-money laundering rules and regulations issued by the Central Bank of Kenya or any other regulatory body whether in Kenya or elsewhere.

5. Simultaneous Orders in Excess of Funds

Where the Bank receives more than one order at approximately the same time, the total amount of which exceeds the available funds or assets of or the credit granted to the Customer, the Bank may honour the orders in whatever manner it thinks fit [within the limit of the funds available].

6. Joint Accounts

Where two or more persons hold a joint account, the provisions of this clause shall also apply:

- a. in the event of the death of any one of the holders of a joint account the Bank shall pay or deliver to or to the order of the survivor or survivors all moneys, securities, deeds, documents and other property whatsoever, remaining unencumbered, standing to credit or held by the Bank for any account(s) in their joint names;
- b. the holders of a joint account shall be jointly and severally liable for any overdraft, loan or other credit facilities or accommodation which shall be granted to any account in their joint names, and for any liability or obligation arising from or pertaining to such joint account, together with all interest, commission and other banking charges and expenses;
- c. the Bank may, unless otherwise agreed, act on the instructions of any one holder of a joint account, but if any holder of a joint account gives instructions that conflict or appear to conflict with instructions given by any other holder of the joint account, the Bank may refuse to act on any such instructions until the conflict is resolved to the Bank's sole satisfaction;
- d. each holder of a joint account authorises and empowers the other holder(s) to endorse for deposit and to deposit with the Bank any and all cheques, notes or other instruments for the payment of money, payable and purporting to belong to any one or all of them, and should any such instruments be received by the Bank without having been so endorsed then the Bank is hereby authorised to endorse any such instruments on behalf of the relevant holder and to credit the same to the account held in their joint names.

7. Savings Accounts

In relation to savings accounts held by the Customer:-

- a. the Customer only shall be permitted to make withdrawals from such savings account on production of the relevant savings account withdrawal documentation prescribed by the Bank, duly completed. The Bank may, at its sole discretion, and on the written instructions of the Customer, make payment to a third party from the savings account.
- b. in the event that the Customer instructs the Bank to close the savings account within 6 months of the said account being established for any reason, the Bank may levy a charge on the savings account in line with the Bank's tariff guide, acceptance of which the Customer hereby confirms and undertakes to pay.
- c. the Bank reserves the right to fix the minimum deposit amount that must be maintained by the Customer in a savings account at any given time as well as the rate of interest payable on such savings account. The Bank may at its sole discretion close any savings account if in the opinion of the Bank the Customer is not operating the savings account in a manner consistent with the operation of a savings account as determined by the Bank in its sole discretion.

8. Fixed Deposit Accounts

Upon sufficient notice being given to the Bank by the Customer, the Bank may permit the premature withdrawal of funds from a fixed deposit account before maturity and in such event the Customer unreservedly accepts that it shall forfeit all the interest that had accrued on such deposit and shall pay to the Bank any such fee that may be charged by the Bank for such premature withdrawal from or closure of the fixed deposit account. For the purposes of this Clause a premature withdrawal shall mean any withdrawal of funds prior to the maturity date as indicated on the fixed deposit certificate or receipt pertaining to the relevant fixed deposit account.

9. Foreign Currency Accounts

Subject to all laws and governmental regulations, where an account is in foreign currency, any demand on the Bank for payment from such account shall be properly met by the Bank issuing a draft or effecting a transfer or making payment in any other manner in foreign currency at the discretion of the Bank.

10. Holdings and Credit in Foreign Currency

Subject to all laws and governmental regulations applicable:-

- a. where the Bank holds any foreign currency for the account of the Customer, the Bank shall credit the counter value of such holdings in foreign currency to the Bank's accounts maintained with its correspondent banks in the various countries of such foreign currency's origin;
- b. such accounts shall be held in the Bank's name but entirely at the Customer's risk and the Bank shall not be held responsible for any loss or damage suffered by the Customer as a consequence of any legal, fiscal or other measures taken which affect such accounts or for any other reason including but not limited to unavailability of such funds in due course, as a result of any alleged fraud or any other reason beyond the Bank's control;
- c. except in the case of a transfer of funds by the Customer to the Bank, the Customer may dispose of such funds only by means of cheques or transfers in the original currencies in which they were held;
- d. all credits granted in foreign currencies are also subject to the provisions of this clause.

11. Partnership Accounts

In the event of the Customer being a partnership the following provisions of this clause shall also apply:-

- a. the partners authorise the Bank to carry out instructions countermanding payment of cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes or other orders for payment when such instructions are given by any person whose name appears on the mandate whether or not that person has signed the original payment instruction.

- b. the partners authorise the Bank to grant overdraft, loan or other credit facilities or accommodation or otherwise make advances with or without security for the account(s) of the partnership, and to discount bills and promissory notes, at the request of the partners for the time being made in accordance with the mandate.
- c. the partners authorise the Bank to accept by way of pledge or deposit as security or for safe custody anything belonging to the partnership on the instructions of the partners for the time being made in accordance with the mandate, and to deliver upon the said instructions anything so accepted to be held on account of the partnership.
- d. upon change in the constitution of the partnership, the partners will sign a new mandate.
- e. all liability of the partners to the Bank shall be joint and several.
- f. a mandate remains in force and may be acted upon by the Bank until it has either been revoked in writing by all or any of the signatories to the partnership account or until it has been replaced by a new mandate.

12. Payment by Third Parties and Collections

The Bank may credit the Customer's account(s) with amounts paid by third parties but shall assume no responsibility for the realisation of any items deposited with the Bank for collection. All instruments such as cheques, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments or commercial documents tendered for collection and credit to the Customer's account are accepted subject to the following express terms and conditions:-

- a. instruments not payable at the Bank are accepted by the Bank only for transmission on behalf of the Customer at the Customer's entire risk and responsibility;
- b. where instruments are forwarded by the Bank by post or through any courier service to other banks or to any correspondent or agent or sub-agent of the Bank, such postal service provider and/or couriers, as well as such other banks, correspondents, agents or sub-agents of the Bank shall be deemed to be the Customer's own "agent(s) for collection", notwithstanding that such couriers, banks, correspondents, agents or sub-agents are of the Bank's choice;
- c. the Bank shall not accept any responsibility and shall not be held liable for any delay, mutilation or loss of any of the Customer's instruments arising from or occasioned by the transmission of such instruments by post or through a courier, nor shall the Bank be responsible or held liable for any act, neglect, default, failure or insolvency of any bank, correspondent, agent or sub-agent aforesaid and/or their employees, nor shall the Bank be responsible or held liable for any loss or damage suffered by the Customer or by any party as a result thereof;
- d. the Bank reserves the right to debit any Customer's account that may have been exceptionally credited with respect to an instrument which is subsequently unpaid on collection.

13. Deposit of Cheques and Returned Cheque Indemnity

- a. All cheques or other orders for payment of whatsoever nature are accepted for deposit or collection at the risk of the Customer notwithstanding that the Bank sends such instruments for collection through a courier of its choice or by any other means it deems appropriate. Where any cheque or order is unpaid for any reason whatsoever (including but not limited to physical loss) other than the Bank's negligence, the Bank may debit the Customer's account(s) with any amount previously credited in respect of such unpaid cheque or other order (taking into account any exchange risk where relevant), together with interest, in the event that the account is overdrawn as a result, at such rate or rates decided by the Bank at its sole discretion calculated from the date such amount was credited. Any money credited to the Customer in error must be repaid on demand.
- b. Where cheques, other negotiable instruments or commercial documents are deposited for the credit of the Customer's account, whether or not payable at or by the Bank, the amount of such deposits shall be available for withdrawal only when actually collected by the Bank.

- c. Notwithstanding that immediate credit may have been given for cheques received for collection through clearing, they are not available to the Customer for drawing against until such cheques are in fact paid. Such cheques shall not be deemed to have been honoured even if they are allowed to be drawn against and the Bank reserves the right to debit the Customer's account(s) or in any other way recover any such amounts withdrawn if the relevant cheques are returned unpaid.
- d. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, any money credited to the Customer's account(s) in error must be repaid immediately on demand together with the applicable interest and the Bank shall be entitled to debit the Customer's account(s), or in any other way recover, any such amounts so credited in error together with interest thereon.

14. Bank charges and expenses

The Customer agrees that the Bank may recover from the Customer any costs, fees, interest, commissions, or taxes and stamp duties paid or incurred by the Bank on the Customer's behalf, or levied as a consequence of any dealings between the Bank and the Customer.

In particular, the Customer shall pay to the Bank and the Bank shall be entitled to debit the Customer's account(s) with:-

- a. all legal charges, including but not limited to advocate and client costs, incurred by the Bank in obtaining legal advice in connection with the Customer's dealings with the Bank or incurred by the Bank in any legal, arbitration or other proceedings arising out of any dealings with the Customer and/or any other fees or costs incurred by the Bank in obtaining any other professional advice relating thereto;
- b. unless otherwise agreed in writing, interest on overdrawn accounts, loan accounts or on any other facility granted by the Bank, at such rate or rates as may have been agreed and in the absence of agreement at such rate or rates as the Bank shall in its sole discretion from time to time determine within legal limits, which rate or rates may be different for different accounts. Such interest shall be calculated on daily balances and debited monthly by way of compound interest. The Bank shall not be under any obligation to notify the Customer of any changes in the rate or rates of interest charged. Where a higher rate of interest has been agreed between the Bank and the Customer in any security given or procured by the Customer, that higher rate may be charged by the Bank on any of the Customer's accounts. Interest under this clause is payable until all sums due to the Bank from the Customer have been paid or repaid in full, as well after or before any judgment, and notwithstanding the determination of the relationship between the Bank and the Customer;
- c. commission at such rate or rates and at such time or times as the Bank shall decide, and the Bank shall be at liberty to charge different rates for different accounts;
- d. all charges, fees and tariffs applicable to the Customer's Account (the "Tariffs") as outlined in the Bank's standard tariff guide, a copy of which is available to the Customer at the time of opening the Account as well as on request;
- e. all charges and professional fees incurred by the Bank in relation to the Customer including but not limited to valuers fees, debt collection fees, auctioneers fees and all other incidental costs incurred by the Bank in collection of a debt owed by the Customer and/or in relation to the Bank's dealings with the Customer;
- f. in addition to the above, all other proper expenses and charges including but not limited to commitment fees, ledger fees, disbursements for cheque books, search fees, postages, cables, telephone calls, taxes, duties, impositions and expenses incurred in complying with the Customer's requests or in maintaining the account or in respect of any dealings between the Bank and the Customer.

The Customer hereby authorizes the Bank to debit his account with any and/all the above mentioned charges, fees, tariffs, interest, commission, disbursements, taxes, duties, costs and expenses whatsoever without further reference to the Customer.

15. Bank Statements

The Customer shall examine the contents of any statement of account or statement of any other nature which has been sent by the Bank to the Customer and, if the Customer has not objected in writing to the Bank within fourteen (14) days of the statement date, the statement shall be deemed approved and conclusively accepted by the Customer and shall not at any time thereafter be challenged by the Customer on any ground whatsoever including but not limited to lack of mandate, forged or inadequate signature or endorsement of cheques, forged alteration thereof or otherwise.

16. Customer Complaints

The Bank is not responsible for any matter unless the Customer has made a complaint in writing to the Bank within seven (7) days after the matter has come to the attention of the Customer. Where notification from the Bank with respect to any such matter is expected but not received, the complaint must be made within a reasonable time after non receipt.

17. No Duty of the Bank to protest

The Bank is not liable for any loss or damages suffered by any party if any dishonoured bill is not noted and /or protested. The Bank will nevertheless endeavour to cause dishonoured bills to be noted and/or protested provided that it receives instructions from the Customer to do so within a reasonable time, and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours of the bill being dishonoured.

18. Repayment of Overdrawn Accounts

- a. The Customer must not permit the balance in the account to fall below the prescribed minimum balance of the account, nor shall the Customer exceed the limit of any overdraft facility extended and approved by the Bank in respect of the account, without the Bank's prior written consent. The Bank shall be at liberty at its sole and absolute discretion to refuse to honour a cheque, make a payment and/or allow a withdrawal if the effect of the same would be to either cause the account to be drawn below its prescribed minimum balance or cause the account to be overdrawn or cause the agreed overdraft limit to be exceeded.
- b. If the Account is drawn below its prescribed minimum balance or the approved overdraft limit is exceeded without the Bank's prior written consent the Customer shall pay such fees as the Bank may prescribe as well as pay additional interest on the particular amount drawn below the prescribed minimum balance or the particular amount in excess of the approved overdraft limit at such rate or rates and compounded in such manner as may be determined by the Bank in its sole and absolute discretion until the outstanding amounts are paid in full.
- c. the Customer shall immediately on demand repay to the Bank any amount due on any overdrawn account of the Customer together with interest thereon as well as all other costs, charges and expenses arising there from.

19. Right of Set-Off

- a. The Bank may, at any time, without notice, combine and/or consolidate any of the Customer's accounts and set-off against any account or indebtedness of the Customer:
 - i. any other account whether current, loan, savings or any other type;
 - ii. any time fixed or other deposit (whether matured or not).
- b. The Bank may, upon notice to the Customer, set-off his account against any other account or indebtedness in respect of which the Customer is liable, notwithstanding that some other person may also be liable in respect thereof.

20. Right of Lien

- a. Where the Customer is indebted to the Bank, the Bank shall have a general lien over all property of the Customer in the Bank's possession including but not limited to cash, goods, securities or valuables deposited for safe custody or as security, cheques presented for payment, bills and other property movable or immovable charged to secure repayment of any money whether or not that money has been repaid and any other property over which the Bank has a lien by law.

- b. Where the Customer is indebted in circumstances giving the Bank a right to set off, all property specified in paragraph (a) of this clause shall be held as security for the debt.
 - c. The Bank may at any time give the Customer notice in writing that if an accrued debt is not paid within a specified period (such period being not less than 14 days after receipt of the Customer of the notice) then the Bank may without further notice proceed to realise sufficient of the Customer's assets to discharge the debt. Any part payment towards discharging the debt will be accepted strictly on account and without prejudice to the Bank's rights.
 - d. If the debt is not discharged within the time allowed and the Bank proceeds to realisation of the Customer's assets under paragraph (c) of this clause, the Customer hereby irrevocably appoints and constitutes the Bank as his attorney for the purpose of such realisation, and for giving good title to any assets sold and all other incidental matters. Any surplus funds received from any such realisation shall be held on the Customer's account subject to these General Terms and Conditions.
 - e. The Bank shall not be held responsible or liable in any way for the outcome of any realisation exercise under this clause, except where it can be proved that the Bank acted in bad faith.
 - f. Any of the Customer's funds in foreign currencies which are subject to the Bank's lien may be set-off against debts or realised at the rate of exchange applicable at the date of set-off or realisation. The Bank accepts no liability and shall not be held responsible for any loss caused by exchange rate fluctuations which loss shall be for the Customer's account.
 - g. Deposits held for a given period of time, including deposits in foreign currencies, may be set-off against debts notwithstanding that the time period for such deposits has not expired at the time of set-off.
- c. The Customer is advised that:
 - i. where possible any completed cheque should be crossed with two distinct lines in order to make the cheque negotiable only through a bank;
 - ii. if it is known with which bank the beneficiary of the cheque keeps his account then the name of that bank should be added to the crossing in order to make the cheque negotiable only through that particular bank;
 - d. On receipt in a form acceptable to the Bank of written notice from the Customer to stop payment of a cheque, the Bank will record the notice. Such notice may only be acted upon if received by the Bank and recorded prior to payment in respect of the relevant cheque having been made. The Bank shall not be held responsible if such notice is not acted upon unless bad faith on the part of the Bank can be proved;
 - e. Upon closure of any account, the Customer will return to the Bank any uncompleted cheque forms relating to that account;
 - f. The Bank may refuse payment of any cheque not drawn on the Bank's cheque form in the manner specified by the Bank in these General Terms and Conditions.

23. Drawing of Cash

- a. The Bank will pay cash to the Customer only where the relevant cheque is signed in the presence of the Bank's teller by an Authorised Signatory or by the Authorised Signatories;
- b. Where a cash cheque is presented not by a Customer but by a third party, the Bank will require confirmation by telephone or by such other means deemed necessary by the Bank from the Customer or from a representative of the Customer known to the Bank before it makes payment to that third party;
- c. Where cash cheques are presented by employees or other known agents of the Customer the following provisions shall apply:-
 - i. The employee or agent will be identified before hand to the Bank in a manner acceptable to the Bank;
 - ii. A limit will be agreed upon in writing between the Customer and the Bank as to the amount such employee or agent may draw, and until such limit is agreed, no drawings will be allowed under this paragraph (c).
- d. Where payments are made under paragraph (c) of this clause, the Customer shall indemnify the Bank in respect of all payments made to such employee or agent whether or not the money was received by the Customer and whether or not the order for payment presented was in fact the order of the Customer;
- e. Where either the employee or agent is not known to the Bank or if the cheque exceeds the agreed limit the provisions of paragraph (b) apply, in which case such employee or agent shall be deemed to be a third party.

24. Forgery

The Bank shall not be liable in any way to the Customer for having honoured any cheque the signature or content of which has been forged if:-

- a. The Customer has facilitated such forgery either by failure to comply with any of the conditions contained in Clause 22 or by its negligence in any other way; or
- b. There has been a previous forgery on any cheque of the Customer without the Customer having objected to the first statement of account which reflected the debit in respect of such cheque as provided by Clause 15 hereof; or
- c. The forgery has been perpetuated by an employee, servant, agent, contractor or subcontractor of the Customer.

25. Validity of Documents

The Bank shall not be responsible for ascertaining the authenticity, validity, regularity or value of any documents received by the Bank whatsoever including but not limited to bills of lading, delivery orders,

21. Freezing of Accounts

The Bank may at any time freeze any account of the Customer if and so long as there is any dispute in respect thereof or if the Bank has doubt for any reason whatsoever as to the person or persons entitled to operate the same, without any obligation to institute interpleader proceedings or to take any step of its own initiative for the determination of such dispute or doubt.

22. Cheque Books

Cheque books are issued subject to the following conditions:-

- a. The Customer agrees to and shall look after and use any cheque book and any cheque leaf with the utmost care.
- b. The Customer further agrees to ensure:-
 - i. That all uncompleted cheque leaves are kept in safe custody at all times;
 - ii. That the Bank is immediately informed upon discovery by the Customer that any cheque book or any cheque leaf has been stolen, lost or mislaid;
 - iii. That any person preparing a cheque on behalf of the Customer is authorised to do so;
 - iv. That all cheques are prepared and signed in permanent ink or other indelible writing material;
 - v. That the amount in which a cheque made out is written as near as possible to the left side of the leaf and in such a manner as to prevent any unauthorised addition of letters or figures or other change thereto;
 - vi. That all cheques and any alterations are signed by an Authorised Signatory;
 - vii. That no uncompleted cheque is given to any stranger or other person when the Customer does not have reasonable grounds for believing such person to be trustworthy.

consignment documents, receipts, warrants and insurance policies.

26. Safe custody

Any article received from the Customer by the Bank for storage or safekeeping is accepted and received on the following terms:-

- a. The article is received by the Bank for the account of the Customer;
- b. The article is received by the Bank at the sole risk of the Customer and the Bank shall not be liable for any damage to or loss of the article through any cause whatsoever including but not limited to moths, vermin, heat or leakage and the Bank accepts no responsibility for any such damage or loss except in so far as this Clause expressly provides to the contrary;
